I had heard so much about Jo Nesbo -- and I enjoy this genre -- that I had high hope when I began reading The Bat, which I chose because it was the first in this series. Given my high expectations I was disappointed overall with The Bat. A number of things fell short. First the vast majority of the action took place in Australia, which was weird.

The Bat by Jo Nesbo has both heart and dark depths - it as moving as it is thrilling. Jo Nesbo has shown great talent in structuring this thriller. The crumbs left along the way were, in most cases, small enough not to give the game away, but large enough for readers to recall once the many twists were unveiled - just how I like it.

popular, but this is my first foray into the world of Jo Nesbo's Harry Hole. THE BAT fits fairly squarely into the "thriller" category, and is a bit of a unique introduction to a character that many readers have fallen in love with. As much as this is Nordic noir, it read very differently from what I expected.
